STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

On September 15, 2015, at approximately 3:09 p.m., Deputy Luanne Anderson and Deputy Josh Holtz from the Blue Earth County Sheriff's Office were dispatched to 848 Beaver Avenue in Blue Earth County on the report of a domestic assault. Upon arriving at the scene, Deputy Anderson spoke to Melanie Ann Wylie, D.O.B. 9-4-1986, who was standing outside with two small children. Deputy Anderson made contact with Wylie to determine what happened.

Wylie stated that Jordy Earl Schultz, D.O.B. 9-17-1982, had gotten off work and came to take care of the children when she went to work. Wylie stated that she and Schultz began arguing, and some point, Schultz demanded a pair of shoes and a necklace be given back to him. During the argument, Wylie said that she tried calling 911; but Schultz hung up the phone. Deputy Holtz later confirmed with dispatch that when they were speaking to Wylie, the line was disconnected; and they made contact with her again.

Wylie stated that Schultz grabbed her purse strap and threw her to the ground before leaving the residence. Wylie stated that her two younger children were present. The deputies did not observe any visible marks on Wylie. Deputy Holtz spoke to one of the children, who stated they saw Schultz push Wylie down. Wylie stated she believed Schultz was going to his mother's place.

Officers located Schultz at that residence. One officer reported to Deputy Anderson that Schultz had a bloody left nostril and had told him that Wylie slapped him in the face. Deputy Anderson met with Schultz and read him his Miranda warning. Schultz agreed to speak to Deputy Anderson. Schultz confirmed that he got off work and was going home to take care of the kids while Wylie went to work. Schultz stated they then got into an argument.

Schultz admitted he swore in front of the kids as Wylie had previously told the deputies. Schultz also confirmed that he asked for a pair of shoes back but stated Wylie ripped her necklace off. Schultz stated that Wylie then slapped his left cheek, causing some bleeding to occur in his left nostril. Schultz admitted that he pushed Wylie to get her out of the residence before it escalated. Schultz stated, at that time, Wylie "faked" falling and said that she was going to call 911. Schultz stated his arm could have caught her purse strap when he pushed Wylie aside. Schultz stated he was pushing Wylie to move her out of the way. Schultz stated he did not prevent Wylie from calling 911. Deputy Anderson did not see any blood on Schultz's nostril, but Schultz put his finger up his nose, and Deputy Anderson observed blood on the tip of the finger.
